intro!

Finally, after lots of troubles, here we are back again with "Night Warriors", issue number 2. We know you're never seen any number 1.That's because we consider "Subwaynet" as the first issue (look at the bottom of the page...). Once again we want to show you the best europeans (but not only) subways, the best bombers and their works, focusing the attention on italy, especially Milano, our city, where Neuro the criminal had last summer 15 pannels running. In Naples Dia's seem to run the line, while in Rome, Poison is for us the best at the moment for quality and quantity.Like in Italy, all over europe, painting subways is getting every day harder: in Madrid, the crazy (locos) writer paint mostly in the station pulling the emergency brake............

.................but this method is spreading also in other cities, such Barcelona Stockholm and Oslo. Anyway the situation is different from city to city, in Stockholm you can get months of jail for a pannel , and bombing a subway looks like a revenge against Falck security; in Lisbon tunnels are almost a newness; in Paris, a strong anti-graffiti campaigh killed the scene one of the biggest in the old days. Mr Max from Basel doesn't have a subway in his city, and managed to hit the hottest sistems. Even if security guards and vandal squads are takin' over...let's kepp on rockin'!!! But now time for words iz over, enjoy the action! More fire in babilon!!! Bomboklat!!!

..Attention please, we won't repeat again: The old connection of Subwaynet is over. If you see a Subwaynet magazyne again, it won't be because we are a copy, but just because an Idiot wasn't able to keep the agreement of not using anymore the name "Subwaynet". FUCK YOU IDIOT!
